

Sliding boards, Jager on tap, beer pong: Crazy perks from 19 Philly-area companies

• ◦

If you're not getting weekly massages at work in addition to your free gourmet lunch while your car gets serviced on-site, you may be doing it wrong.

At least, that's probably how you'll feel after reading about some of the best work perks in the Philadelphia region.

Offices with open floor plans and collaborative working spaces have become commonplace. And of course, there are jobs in the Philly area come with great health insurance packages and generous vacation time options. But not all come with constantly flowing taps, sliding boards to ride into the cafeteria, or subsidies for child care and public transportation.

We asked you to tell us if your workplace had some of the most unique perks in the area and, boy, did you deliver. Here are 19 of the best/weirdest/ most exclusive perks in the Philly area (in alphabetical order):
